

OVERVIEW OF INGREDIENTS

	Chicken & Turkey	High-quality source of protein for strong muscles. Good digestibility. Natural source of glucosamine and chondroitin for healthy joints.
	MSC herring & salmon	High in omega-3 fatty acids. Has anti-inflammatory effect on skin & coat and helps to keep joints flexible.
	Beef	High in vitamin A and omega-3 fatty acids.
	Aloe vera	Contains a lot of vitamins, minerals, antioxidants and enzymes. Helps strengthening the whole body and in particular the immune system.
	Baobab	High in calcium, potassium, vitamin C and minerals. Helps the bowel function and ensures a high acceptance.
	Carrot	Contains vitamin A1 and beta carotene. Vitamin A is important for building capillaries and thus the health of all cells
	Chicory	Source of fibers. The substance inulin in chicory contributes to healthy intestinal flora and digestion. Supports the breakdown of fat.
	Coconut oil	High in vitamins A and E and a source of energy. Can kill harmful pathogens and help prevent infections.
	Corn	Gluten-free and a source of high-quality proteins. Contributes to the digestion and a healthy blood sugar levels.
	Devil's claw	Good for the cleansing and suppleness of joints and reduces arthralgia. Perfect for older dogs.
	Egg powder	High in protein and fatty acids. Eggs promote growth and muscle development.
	Horsetail	Favorable effect on skin, hair and joints. Helps the moisturizing and stimulates kidney and bladder function.
	Nettle	Helps with kidney problems, works blood purifying and diuretic. Supports the bowel function. Can be pain-relieving for pain of the joints.
	Oats	Nutritious. Good source of carbohydrates and fiber, including beta-glucan, a fiber that helps to lower cholesterol levels.
	Paddy rice	High in protein, highly digestible, without gluten.

	Parsley	Moisturizing and blood purifying. Improves the metabolism. Strengthens claws, hair and skin.
	Peas	Gluten-free and a source of protein and fiber. They have a high acceptance and help reducing the rise in blood sugar levels.
	Potatoe	High in vitamins B and C, source of easily digestible carbohydrates and of beta carotene. Alternative for dogs and cats who have problems digesting wheat.
	Rosehip	Packed with vitamins C, A, B1 and B2. Can act as an anti-inflammatory agent, clean the blood and protect against cancer and cardiovascular diseases.
	Rosemary	Rosemary helps strengthen the intestines, detoxifies the liver and stimulates bile production.
	Seaweed	Contains vitamins A, D and E and minerals. High in protein, omega-3 & 6 fatty acids. Contributes to good bowel movements, beautiful fur and flexible muscles.
	Soy	Good protein source, contributes to softer feces with lower pH and ammonia content. Provides a better cholesterol level. Good substitute for meat.
	Spinach	High in vitamin A and C. Contains lutein and flavonoids that are good for eyes and skin.
	Spirulina	With vitamin B12, calcium, iron, zinc, magnesium, potassium and amino acids for a healthy diet. Works positively on blood sugar levels and contributes to strong bones.
	Sunflower seed husks	Contain many fiber; support the bowel function and the prevention of constipation.
	Tapioca	High in iron and fiber, supports the bowel function. Ensures saturation.
	Thyme	Can help with inflammations as well as digestive problems, skin problems and osteoarthritis.
	Tomato	Full of vitamins A and C, carotene, vitamins B1, B2 and B6 and the minerals potassium, phosphate and magnesium. Supports the immune system.
	White lupine	High in protein, calcium, magnesium and iron. Helps lowering cholesterol & blood pressure and improving bowel function. Contains omega-3 fatty acids.
	Wheat	Source of carbohydrates and raw fibers. Provides energy and optimal digestion.